MASONIC.

Michigan Masonic Home Association's Record—Treasurer's Design.

The Michigan Masonic Home Association has filed its annual statement, showing the ownership of 33 acres of land lying contiguous to Grand Rapids and valued at $300,000, free of incumbrance. In addition the association has $2,200 cash. The officers are: President, Herman N. Moore; vice president, Richard D. Swartout; secretary, Charles W. Calkins; treasurer, Thomas W. Strahan.

The order of the Keystone State has $11,800 invested in 4 per cent Masonic temple redemption loan bonds.

The Masonic sky is bright in St. Louis, and the brethren contemplate the erection of two Masonic temples there.

The last official figures show that New Jersey has nearly 16,000 members.

Senior Sagasta, the prime minister of the most Catholic country on the face of the earth—namely, Spain—holds the rank of grand master of the Freemasons in that country.

Jacob Smith, who recently died in Kentucky, aged 100 years, was the oldest Mason in the United States.

In the suit of the Kitchison heirs to prevent the payment of a $10,000 legacy to St. Paul Masons the judge decided for the Masons.

The indications are that when the grand lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the state of Georgia meets in annual session in Macon next October, Acting Grand Master John P. Shazmon of Elberton will be elected grand master for the ensuing regular term.

In Austria again Freemasonry is eschewed by the aristocracy and the reigning family, as it is also in Russia and Belgium, while in Holland the Dutch nobility are nearly all members of the craft.

The grand master of the grand lodge of England, H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, has granted warrants during the past three months for the formation of 11 lodges.

A clandestine lodge, which claims to get its authority from the grand orient of Spain, has filed a certificate of incorporation with the secretary of state of New York. The grand orient of Spain disclaims all knowledge of the scheme.

Every Master Mason in this country is a possible grand master.

In England of late years it has been authoritatively decided that as to prefixes most worshipful can only be used by the grand master and provincial grand master; right worshipful, by the deputy grand master, grand wardens and provincial and district grand masters; very worshipful, for other officers before grand
